

BCP EUCHARIST PROPERS

THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

SUNDAY 30TH APRIL 2023

8AM

A warm welcome to St Peter's Cathedral as we gather for worship this morning.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

Today at the Cathedral we are celebrating Chaplaincy Sunday, and being reminded of the work that chaplains do on behalf of the church. Chaplains have traditionally worked in hospitals, the armed forces, the police force, schools, aged care facilities, universities, and in workplaces to which they have been invited.

The role of chaplains is diverse depending on their workplace, but they share a few significant things in common.

Chaplains are involved in people in the course of their everyday life, and often at a time of crisis. The chaplains role is to offer non-judgemental support in many ways to each person based on our belief in God's infinite love and care for that person.

Chaplains can become a hidden part of the church's ministry, but their role is greatly valued by those for whom they care. I urge you to pray for them.

Blessings,

The Rev'd Joan Claring-Bould

Celebrant: The Rev'd Sally Sandford-Morgan

Preacher: The Rev'd Joan Claring-Bould

Readers: Daryl Farnham, Don Morris

Please use this Propers booklet in conjunction with the yellow Order of Service.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

O ALMIGHTY God, who alone canst order the unruly wills and affections of sinful men; Grant unto thy people, that they may love the thing which thou commandest, and desire that which thou dost promise; that so, among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed, where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

ACTS 2.42-47

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

Please respond with the phrases in bold

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd: therefore can I lack nothing.

He will make me lie down in green pastures: and lead me beside still waters.

He will refresh my soul: and guide me in right pathways for his name's sake.

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for you are with me, your rod and your staff comfort me.

You spread a table before me in the face of those who trouble me:

you have anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.

Surely your goodness and loving-kindness will follow me all the days of my life:

and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

SECOND READING

A reading from the first letter of Peter

1 PETER 2.1-10

Rid yourselves, therefore, of all malice, and all guile, insincerity, envy, and all slander.

Like newborn infants, long for the pure, spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow into salvation— if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.

Come to him, a living stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God's sight, and like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it stands in scripture:

'See, I am laying in Zion a stone,

a cornerstone chosen and precious;

and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame.'

To you then who believe, he is precious; but for those who do not believe,

'The stone that the builders rejected has become the very head of the corner',

and 'A stone that makes them stumble,

and a rock that makes them fall.’

They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do.

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God’s own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

Once you were not a people,
but now you are God’s people;
once you had not received mercy,
but now you have received mercy.

Hear the word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

The Lord be with you
And with thy spirit

The Holy Gospel is written in the 10th Chapter of the Gospel according to John beginning at verse 1.

Glory be to thee, O Lord

JOHN 10.1-10

‘Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.’ Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them. So again Jesus said to them, ‘Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.

This is the Gospel of the Lord: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Tea/coffee after regular services:

Our community has slowly been returning to having morning tea on a semi-regular basis. We are now able to have the following gatherings:

- The Wednesday 10am community have tea and coffee after the first Wednesday each month. The next gathering will take place on Wednesday 3rd May.
- The Sunday 8am community have tea and coffee after the first Sunday of each month, The next gathering will take place on Sunday 7th May.
- After the 10:30am service, there is tea and coffee provided every week!

Friends Bread Tag project finishes at the end of May. So far we have collected 2.3 kgs of bread tags. To see information about the project, google cleanup.org.au/bread-tags-for-wheelchairs. Maths question ... It takes 18 bread tags to weigh 5 grams of bread tags. How many bread tags have we collected so far? Our goal is to have collected 2.5 kgs weight of bread tags by the end of May 2023.

Planned Giving Reports are now available for collection from the back of the Cathedral.

The Intinction of bread (dipping) during communion is not recommended. Please follow the guidance of our clergy and serving team so we can keep our community safe. Thank you.

Magdalene Centre Food Donations: Dear Parishes and Congregations, thank you for the incredibly generous response to our appeal in February! It made a big difference to those in desperate need. Demand continues to be higher than previous years and we need your generosity more than ever. We keep our food pantry stocked with a variety of items to offer our customers the best dignity of choice possible. Stock is again running very low on most items but especially the following:

Cereal, Soup, Pasta sauce, Baked beans, Tinned spaghetti, Tuna, Tinned vegetables, Tinned fruit, Instant noodles, Sugar. If you can contribute, this would be greatly appreciated.

Taizé Service this Saturday - The monthly Taizé service will take place this Saturday – 6th May at 7.30pm in the Cathedral – all welcome. Musicians are welcome to arrive at 6.30pm to rehearse.

The Pastoral Care meeting takes place on Wednesday, 1st May. You are most welcome to draw any pastoral needs to our attention – please see a member of clergy or contact the office.

Memorial Flowers this Sunday have been kindly donated by Gerald Cheang in loving memory of his father Thomas Cheang.
