

Welcome to St Peter's Cathedral. We are delighted to have you worship with us today for this Eucharist from the Book of Common Prayer. The order of service is in the separate booklet.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

After the joy of Christmas, we settle into a time of relaxation and reflection. Many of us will be taking some well-deserved leave over January. However, the worship of God and an appreciation of God's grace continues in all seasons. Summer, I find, provides an opportunity to enjoy and appreciate many aspects of God's creation – blue skies, the sun, the beach, and the sea to name a few. Worship continues at the Cathedral, of course, as we celebrate the Christmas and Epiphany seasons.

2025 promises to be a big year for the Cathedral and the Diocese of Adelaide as we participate in Hope25. The Hope25 project celebrates the hope that the Good News of God's love in Jesus brings to the world. Look out for the various projects and celebrations that will occur next year. More information on Hope25 throughout 2025 can be found at: <https://www.hope25.com.au>, <https://adelaideanglicans.com>, and <https://www.stpeters-cathedral.org.au>

Blessings for the New Year.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty and everlasting God, who dost govern all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully hear the supplications of thy people, and grant us thy peace all the days of our life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

ISAIAH 62.1-5

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent,
and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
until her vindication shines out like the dawn,
and her salvation like a burning torch.
The nations shall see your vindication,
and all the kings your glory;
and you shall be called by a new name
that the mouth of the Lord will give.
You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord,
and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.
You shall no more be termed Forsaken,
and your land shall no more be termed Desolate;
but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her,
and your land Married;
for the Lord delights in you,
and your land shall be married.
For as a young man marries a young woman,
so shall your builder marry you,
and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
so shall your God rejoice over you.

Hear the word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

PSALM 36.5-10

Please respond with the words in bold type.

Your unfailing kindness, O Lord, is in the heavens:
and your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

Your righteousness is like the strong mountains:
and your justice as the great deep;
you, O Lord, save both man and beast.

How precious, O God, is your enduring kindness:
the children of Adam shall take refuge under the shadow of your wings.

They shall be satisfied with the good things of your house:
and you will give them drink from the river of your delights.

For with you is the well of life:
and in your light shall we see light.

O continue your merciful kindness toward these who know you:
and your righteous dealing to those that are true of heart.

SECOND READING

1 CORINTHIANS 12.1-11

A reading from the letter to the Corinthians.

Concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says 'Let Jesus be cursed!' and no one can say 'Jesus is Lord' except by the Holy Spirit.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

JOHN 2.1-11

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

The Holy Gospel is written in the 2nd Chapter of the Gospel according to John, beginning at verse 1.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

There was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.' And Jesus said to her, 'Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.' His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.' Now standing there were six stone water-jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, 'Fill the jars with water.' And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, 'Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.' So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, 'Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.' Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Thank you for worshipping with us today.

January Worship Schedule

The weekday worship schedule from Christmas to the end of January is according to the “January” pattern with Morning and Evening Prayer said privately, and the Eucharist celebrated on Wednesday at 7:30 am and 10 am (BCP), and Friday at 7:30 am.

During January, Sunday worship will be at the usual times of 8 am (BCP Eucharist), 10:30 am (Sung Eucharist) and 6 pm (Night Prayer).

On Sunday 2 February we will give thanks for the ministry of the Rev’d Dr Susan Straub who has served as Assistant Priest since January 2024. We are especially grateful that Susan has been able to remain with us for a few months following the appointment of the Rev’d Margaret Peel-Shakespeare to allow for a good changeover period. If you would like to contribute to a gift, please place your donation in a marked envelope in the collection bowl, or drop it into the Cathedral office, or transfer funds to BSB 705 077 Account number 00041316 (marked “Straub Gift”). Many thanks.

We were sad to hear of the death of the Bishop Keith Rayner last Sunday afternoon at the great age of 95. Bishop Keith was Archbishop of Adelaide from 1975 to 1990, and returned to live in Adelaide following his retirement as Archbishop of Melbourne and Primate of the Anglican Church of Australia in 1999. His Requiem Eucharist will be offered on Monday 3 February at 10 am. Please note that there will be no parking on site, but Pennington Gardens opposite the Cathedral will be open from 9 am.

FESTIVAL of HOPE

in Theology and the Arts

The Cathedral is participating in the upcoming Festival of Hope in Theology and the Arts from 10 to 16 February. Please join us at either or both of the following lectures.

Hope after the No Vote

Wednesday, 12 February 2025 6pm – 7pm

Cynthia Poulton Hall, St Peter's Cathedral, 27 King William Rd, North Adelaide

Bishop Chris McLeod will explore theologically what 'Hope' means for First Nations' peoples after the 'No' vote in the referendum to establish a First Nations' Voice to Federal Parliament embodied in the Australian Constitution. He will draw upon contemporary First Nations' reflections on 'Hope' and suggest a way forward to see 'Hope' embodied in action.

Theology Meets the People: Messages of Hope for 2025

Friday, 14 February 2025, 4pm – 7pm

St Barnabas College, North Adelaide

Three theologians share their messages of hope.

Rev'd Dr Lyndon Shakespeare – Spaces of Hope

Christianity is an embedded faith. The story of God and God's people cannot be told without reference to spaces and places: towns, mountains, cities, and even buildings and rooms. From Eden to the New Jerusalem, God is present with the created order in and through places. In this talk, I will explore the way Christian hope can be understood spatially as our response and cooperation with God's providence at work in the physical spaces around our church buildings. I do this by attending to ideas and examples of placemaking that are designed around fostering hope through engaging the local community and building spaces of belonging.

Rev'd Canon Jenny Wilson – Preaching as an Act of Hope

Is it possible that preachers in our time and place, saying to our people, "Here is your God", are participating in an act of hope?

*Get you up to a high mountain,
O Zion, herald of good tidings;
lift up your voice with strength,
say to the cities of Judah,
'Here is your God!' (Isaiah 40:9)*

Rev'd Dr Michael Trainor – Hope in the Gospel of Luke

In a world of imperial hegemony, wealth disparity and preferential option for the powerful and famous, Luke offers a word of hope to seekers of integrity and faithful discipleship struggling in a Greco-Roman world removed in time and place from the ministry and mission of the Galilean Jesus.
