God's Own Country
First Nations leaders and clergy from the Anglican Church, generously offer theological insights and personal reflections that help us to hear the VOICE of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people of faith. Based on the Seven Days of Creation and with stunningly beautiful paintings by the Rev'd Aunty Robyn Davis, 'God's Own Country' is an essential, life-giving and challenging study.

In our struggle to become an authentically Australian church, what better resource could we turn to than the voices of leaders who draw on vibrant Christian faith and a 60,000 year old understanding of God's relationship with the land and people of the country we call Australia.

We hope every Anglican parish and person will study with First Nations leaders during Lent 2024, learning from and loving God through the gracious lens of Indigenous people of faith.

Monday 7.00pm Office Meeting Room
Leader: The Rev'd Dr Lynn Arnold AO
Commencing 17 March 2025

The Harrowing of Hell
Is an Epic Poem that engages the imagination of the reader. It is an exploration of spiritual truths, all the while rendering a faithful depiction of Christ as revealed in the New Testament and Eastern Christian Tradition. It is history and theology expressed with poetic adoration. This cosmic event was proclaimed in Ancient Creeds, the New Testament, and portrayed in various forms of art throughout the centuries.

This Epic Poem by J.S. Jackson explores the question: What happened between Christ's crucifixion and resurrection? It is the story of the Hero of Heroes.

Monday 10.00am Cynthia Poulton Hall
Leader: The Rev'd Canon Jenny Wilson
Commencing 17 March 2025

An Altar in the World
In An Altar in the World, Barbara Brown Taylor shares how she learned to encounter God far beyond the walls of the church. She reveals meaningful ways to discover the sacred in the small things we do and see, from simple practices such as walking, working, and prayer. Something as ordinary as hanging clothes on a clothesline becomes an act of meditation if we pay attention to what we're doing and take time to notice the sights, smells, and sounds around us. Making eye contact with the cashier at the grocery store becomes a moment of true human connection. Allowing yourself to get lost leads to new discoveries.

As we incorporate these practices into our daily lives, we begin to discover altars everywhere we go, in nearly everything we do. Through her expert guidance and delicate, thought-provoking prose, we learn to live with purpose, pay attention, slow down, and revere the world we live in.

Lenten Studies
2025

Hope25 Lenten Studies aims to encourage daily reflection on the hope we find in Jesus as we move through the Lenten season toward the joyful observance of his resurrection on Easter Day.

The Lenten study book contains 47 commentaries written by Australian bishops, along with reflections, corresponding to the daily Bible readings from Ash Wednesday to Easter Day. It is organized into six themes focusing on the hope held by Christians, drawing from specific biblical passages.

Each theme concludes with a personal testimony from an Anglican parishioner about discovering hope in Jesus, followed by a series of contemplation questions.
